

|   |                                      |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Position   | Deck Engineer                        |
| Employer   | Campbell Cruise and Yatch Management |
| Job Summary  |                                      |
| Responsible for performing duties as delegated by The Chief Engineer  |                                      |
| Essential Duties   |                                      |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Mentioned Engineer responsible for maintenance of the mooring equipment, winches, fair lead, rollers and etc.</li><li>• Evaluation of structural conditions and assistance with repairing of the basement.</li><li>• Life boat davits, including skiffs, all structure and movable parts. Deck and Engine Cranes and Lifting appliances.</li><li>• Assistance with maintenance of the hydraulic stations for all shell doors on board. Cargo and Luggage ramps.</li><li>• As weather tight and watertight doors on board. Assistance with maintenance of the fire pumps and Emergency stations for the WTD.</li><li>• Assistance with fire isolation valves and systems related to the ventilations of ballast fuel and potable water tanks.</li><li>• Required to have perfect welder skill, priority with approval by any Classification Society.</li></ul> |                                      |